Clinton, CFR lackey

the star-spangled disease intrudes under the Southern Cross, in this timeless
Southern Land

-- perturbed by
our Freedoms --
they wish to poison
our egalitarian
nation
with fear, hate,
division
and utilise it
to extend the range of their criminal military.

a Washington compliant Oz government
(installed to be defeated)
accommodates
the militaristic spread,
the evil plague
but not for long,
someone has sorely
misinterpreted the Oz character.

it's far too late for exposed US cabals
down here
the sky-banner of the Southern Cross was never designed for slavery, fear or terror -

we have NEVER
deferred to oppression
by stealth or any other means.

no government that supports an abhorrent, foreign regime
on our soil
endures for long,
we are not easily deceived
by facile American LIES.

we know too well,
we have your measure
our people have infiltrated to the heart of your military machine
and have reduced its effectiveness with 'fine military strategies,' books and papers on modern warfare we are 'impressive planners' we have led you to ruin ever so subtly
you would think we were
allies,
the best of friends!

read our history
analyse our culture
if you would know the Truth,
you vacuum-headed brutes!

Love
conquers all,
destroying fear and engendering mateship, harmony and cooperation though we rarely articulate what is widely known
and understood
down here.

pity our servile politicians,
their time
is limited
and their influence
has never been weaker

they attempt to reach
and manage the local population reading from American scripts;

ask the people how effective those methods have been.

Love flows like mountain rivers down here
it sweeps away fabricated concerns, in vain do they attempt to import their
star-spangled hate,
fear and criminal warfare.

is it perhaps that our wild Freedoms
and sense of fair play (WikiLeaks)
and the Oz free press
outwit them at every turn -- violent, rustic, morons have never posed
a real challenge
for our education system?

the wires are open
Love flows;
imported diseases rarely
take hold here,
our timeless land
is hostile to foreign germs/invaders.

if you wish to survive
our harsh conditions
you are faced with
adopting our values
becoming Australian
or perishing.

but please
give it your best shot, Uncle Sam,
do your damndest best,
to import your hate and violence,
to spread your filthy LIES in this region --
under Our Southern Cross.
