

Do you Remember?

international / poetry / post you stole my peace,

and composure
and replaced my steadfastness with love
now i am
unsettled, frenzied
like a crazed monkey hooting in the night

you may have forgotten me but i have not forgotten you, rest easy my enduring love once touched by this divine madness you can never return to the world of transitory illusion there is no reality outside Love

what appears as the world is tribulation, tragedy and woe, a mirage of the mind
a trick of fate necessary to guide us to love's enduring wonder and return us safely to our rightful place in Paradise

when love flows i am only able to express it to the exclusion of all else there was naught before Love; nothing endures without it. surely it is time to cease supporting war, conflict and hate.

Love's reality is One;
in oneness we find our peace and joy every other course leads to misery and death.

surely now is the time to abandon our callous disregard and embrace Life, Love and Harmony.
