Loquacious Stone

a hidden mountain trail is host to a talking stone such eloquence it resides between a gorge and waterfall in a tiny valley to itself it never ceases its chatter the sun rises and sets the stone is incessant the sky bursts with colour, the wind shakes a billion leaves and howls through the trees scouring the valley floor, the stone continues its endless discourse a gnarled branch and crag frame the moon in the night sky, i've never heard such clamour -a din worthy of waking birds a comet flashes across the heavens; does this stone never cease its oration?
