Amn

rest easy amour u weren't to know; consider it a perfect harmonisation intonation reverberation that carried u out of this world vocalise ur escape, from torment to the easy undulations of another world with rhythmic seas and humming light it was unplanned ur departure, accidental, tho u tempted fate once too often and fate never forgoes an opportunity to steal a soul

ur frantic search led u here, briefly i felt a presence and turned there u were, confused dishevelled, u could not identify that for which u searched -but all frantic minds subside in the end vision stabilises
and cognition returns

perhaps now we could return to the plateau under the Egyptian sun and bathe in its light like days gone by when as incestuous brother and sister we copulated in the rushes by the banks of the Nile the priests saw fit to Deify us -our unnatural embraces produced a son who became the Eye of God completing a triadic dynamic, which persists to this day

i miss ur sad laments and soul-rending songs of love, heartache and pain, u tore urself to pieces in ur quest for fulfilment rest easy now my amour the warble of night-birds will carry you to paradise and peace
