Dissent

there is an indescribable satisfaction in dissent; opposing the most powerful forces that exist and observing them react in real fear to the small independent voices saying NO, that's a LIE, NO, you are mass murderers NOT saviours or protectors.

watching reactions to dissenting discourse with calculated attention, watching agencies and information managers (Google) monitor your every word and attempt to suppress your message spells Victory for dissenters -watching the most powerful Corporations and Banks squirm and writhe in unease and wince with every pointed dart of truth, and every arrow of justice launched at their murdering black hearts.

they have no idea that every effort they make to suppress, oppress and misrepresent only increases the volume
-- in both senses of the word -of the dissenting voice.

the plutocrats believe their counter-measures are effective when in fact the opposite is true without their futile efforts to suppress and smother we would have given up decades past.

with every advance we make they grow weaker, every new awakened person spells doom for frauds and liars we have forced their hand on numerous occasions, with every new suicidal act or law they implement the tide of opinion alters in our favour and opposition against them increases

it is with the utmost vigour and satisfaction we deliver our healing and balancing message, every corporate lie countered, every media misrepresentation exposed, all their manufactured 'realities' forced to defer to Truth and simple verifiable facts, which we happily provide.

the purveyors of death and destruction move closer to retribution/ JUSTICE as each day passes their feeble attempts to stem the growing tide of dissent only increases the forces of opposition every new word and dissenting act spells victory for Truth and Justice -- we are well pleased with our efforts and encouraged by the results; there is no silencing the global dissenting voice or stopping the growing opposition to the criminal plutocrats and mass murderers of our time.
