

Flower Arranging

international / poetry / post whether by the hand of an anatomist, sociopath, artisan

or aesthetic,
a composition is struck

an arm twisted backward extreme incongruity
and pain
a dry, dead cunt
denoting desolation,
a contorted neck as if broken supporting a limp head with the brightest blue eyes staring vacantly --
odd bouquets indeed

compatible juxtapositions or jarring incompatibilities?
but it's the eye of the perceiver, that is the final arranger adding the finishing touch good presentations are elusive like dream lovers

yet the art persists
a symptom of cultural decadence and perversity

playing with the genitalia of plants is obscene
imagine a world where plants are dominant --

watch a lantana adjusting human piss flaps
and arranging penises
in a circle
around a vulva

obscene, n'est-ce pas?

abstract arrangements are created using UAV Drones firing hellfire missiles into civilian gatherings rendering bodies into parts strewn hundreds of metres apart yet oddly arranged in identifiable, grotesque patterns but my favourite arrangement is a promise yet to materialise it's the "bouquets of flowers" Paul Wolfowitz claimed American 'liberators' would receive for slaughtering over one million

and stealing the nation's

arranging flowers is popular,
rough bouquets in Baghdad, the heads of neo-cons
with decorative bullet holes in their foreheads

an adjacent stall
offers heads of American democrats tied by the hair hanging in kinetic mobile art displays
turning slowly
in the desert wind,
lifeless

the art of flower arranging has spread to Africa,
Central Asia
throughout the world
in fact,
the most prized arrangements are those brimming with American flowers

the bonsai scrotums
of mass murdering soldiers tiny American dicks
-- in plentiful supply -- adorn every international arrangement from the Balkans to the borders of Russia and China

international popularity promises expert arrangements to come

Home of the 'brave!'

Paul 'bouquet of flowers' Wolfowitz - criminal Zionist neocon and idiot
