

Duplicity

international / poetry / post

let it go and lay back
on a cloud
it will support u
if u surrender

swoon in space
disengaged from
corporeality

float

allow ur mind to
to lead,
just drift with it

or would u prefer
a shoulder to snuggle into,
ur such a child at times?

this is no time
to play with ur
favourite toy,
my cock

i am spent
from a memorable session with ur best friend's daughter

what is it about teenage hormones that invite a slow hand, soothing words and a man of experience?

or is it that young women instinctively understand quality?

i have often wondered but rarely hesitate
or decline an invitation to assist a young woman in her development
