

Chosen

I chose you, infinite choices reduced to a moment in time with you,
you are that one i want to hold - it seems absurd
but i am making the choice, picking the pick of the pickles for the picker

i choose and pick from available choices, with blind faith i have chosen wisely, but with you it's not a choice, you are the chosen one that i'd choose every time
