

Wage War on Warmongers

it's overdue,
why allow the nefarious to wage war on us? they never get their hands dirty or experience the horror of their works - they will never learn unless they experience the wars they create

it's time, time indeed to wage war on the warmongers shove the blood, spilled guts and body parts down their evil throats directly make them watch while THEIR families are blown to pieces and just explain it's collateral damage not the needless slaughter of innocent women and CHILDREN, collateral damage indeed a term used to avoid reality and responsibility for crimes to kill an innocent child and call it collateral damage is heinous - return the 'favor' as everyone has families and no-one is immune to violence killing innocent children is the greatest crime any human could commit and elites commit it almost daily in numerous regions of the world are they immune or somehow special? not a chance, they bleed like everyone else, we know their names and places, they are easily dropped like tin ducks in a shooting gallery, we need not approach as a thousand yards makes a simple target trump launched over 50 missiles on Syria illegally is this criminal somehow immune from a retaliatory response? no way, some of us are highly trained in cyber and traditional combat, we were once called the ghosts of the desert by the enemy that nightly attempted to traverse OUR space and met with a devastating final response

Any Rothschild is a fair target, the US, UK and Western European governments are fair game, killers for profit, all of them we will not be content until they are forced to be clad in protective armor or encased terrified in the glass booths they prepare for us surely they have realized that it would come to this one day and that day is overdue but it's better late than never rage into the night and fight till all are eliminated from the earth who do these tin pots and suits think they are kidding?

the west is not prepared for professional attacks, only amateurs have tried and failed to date -- we are difficult to identify and more difficult to apprehend the damage a handful of trained professionals is able to wreak is not yet appreciated by these criminals that imagine they are beyond the reach of our weapons and retribution wait patiently in the darkness and light, plan and plan again until it becomes automatic we know how to deceive facial recognition -- easy as piss your surveillance and CCTV are worthless confronting professionals you know it and be aware that the breath you feel on your necks is ours we are a new breed of veteran and citizen, we return 'favors' your time has come
