Fly

international / poetry / post u captured me with ur deep, easy eyes, free me

u embraced me with ur firm body,
free me

u enslaved me with ur poetic heart,
free me

the words u weave mesmerise my mind,
free me

caught in bliss we fly over the drear of humanity over trees, seas, mountains and plains, eagles defer to our ecstatic soaring i cannot nor would i fight this captivity,

free me

i was blind, lost and miserable until ur love set me free i am a slave in ur arms who would have thought a chance encounter would grow endlessly and break the shackles of a perverse and contorted culture?

play me forever, never leave me, i surrender completely
