sound appears as visions of you how u appear and disappear with modulations of mind who else is able to see sound?

recollect who/what I/we are and you too will see but only with the mind's eye apart from physical presentations in a limited world of the blind sound develops and endows scent, dimension and completes the representation until u are tactile and responding independently of my will as u have become that presentation at this moment so, what would you now, more sensuality or more of ur wit and wisdom? tho ur erotic presence is difficult to dismiss -- so speak my lovely, express those sweet dreams which form realities now weave me another world in which union and peace prevail, not the eternal conflict and sorrow of the dense world free me my lovely, I know you essentially as the archetype of the female, u must fulfil ur essence here with me as u cannot exist alone in drear so what would u reader, which course have you chosen for urself, what culture has chosen for you?

Are you real, apparition or automaton?
